

Case Study

Successful poultry farm

District : Ranchi

Block : Ratu

Badka Toli women group received training of poultry and started their poultry farm by taking loan from bank of amount Rs. 250000/- It was a very big amount for them and they were doubtful whether their initiative will succeed or not. They were also worried that if they have to suffer loss in the business how they would return the loan amount but all of their doubts proved unnecessary. Their effort brought colourful results and they have also returned their loan to the bank. Now they are very happy that their efforts have brought prosperity for their families.